STATE POLICE INVESTIGATE A HOME INVASION

Shortly after midnight State Police at Troop-F in Westbrook received a 911 call that reported a home invasion had just taken place at a single family home located at Marvin Drive in Westbrook. State Troopers immediately responded to the scene and began a search of the area for the suspects. The residence was secured and Troopers interviewed witnesses at the scene. All of the surrounding police agencies were also notified of the incident.

The State Police Major Crime Squad responded to investigate this case. Troopers learned that the victim had arrived home shortly after midnight and he was confronted shortly thereafter by 2 black males who were wearing hooded sweatshirts. The suspects, who were armed with a handgun, demanded the victim's wallet and watch. Both suspects fled the scene in an unknown direction.

State Police Detectives have developed leads and evidence in this investigation. The initial information developed by detectives, leads them to believe, that this is not a random act.

The investigation is continuing.
